The COURT REPORT

Chauncy Bowman, 25, convicted of premeditated murder while armed and related charges in 2001 shooting in Arthur Capper Public Housing area in S.E. (F-7723-01, PSA 111)

FACTS: A District of Columbia Superior Court jury found Chauncy Bowman, 25, of the 600 block of Condon Terrace, S.E., Washington, D.C., guilty of Premeditated Murder while Armed, Possession of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence, Carrying a Pistol without a License and Obstruction of Justice in connection with a shooting which occurred in the 900 block of Second Street, S.E., on March 14, 2001. The defendant faces up to 110 years in prison, including 30 years mandatory time, when sentenced on December 17, 2003, before Judge Patricia Broderick.

According to the trial testimony, on March 14, 2001, Norris Hill drove a friend to the 900 block of Second Street, S.E. (PSA 111), to buy some PCP. When they arrived in the block, Mr. Hill parked the car and his friend got out and walked to the rear parking lot of the Arthur Capper Public housing complex. While the friend was in the parking area, the defendant and two accomplices armed themselves with guns and surrounded Mr. Hill's car. The defendant, armed with a .357 revolver, walked up to the car, stuck his hand in a partially open car window and fired five rounds into the car. Three of the rounds struck Mr. Hill, 46, of Alexandria, Virginia, causing him to die minutes later.

Another accomplice, brandishing a .9mm pistol, stood approximately 40 feet in front of the car and fired seven rounds into the air. The third participant brandished a Tec 9 shotgun and positioned himself behind the car. The third participant fired at Mr. Hill's friend who ran down the street. The friend was not injured. Immediately after the shooting, the defendant and another man were seen fleeing the scene. A few days after the murder, the defendant admitted to a neighborhood friend that he had "dumped off in the car."

Months after the murder, in November, and during the course of the pending grand jury investigation, the defendant approached one of the neighbors to whom he had previously confessed. He told this person to tell the police that another person shot into the car with the .357.

The defendant, who was arrested in December 2001, gave three videotaped statements to the police outlining his version of the events surrounding the murder of Mr. Hill and ultimately admitted that on the day of the murder, he carried the .357 and shot into the passenger window, killing Mr. Hill.

In announcing the conviction, United States Attorney Roscoe Howard commended lead Detective Robbie Saunders of the Metropolitan Police Department for his outstanding investigative efforts. He also praised Metropolitan Police detectives Stanley Greene and Lee Littlejohn for their assistance in the case and commended MPD investigators Michael Jewell and Sherrie Forrester whose assistance with witnesses in this case was absolutely invaluable. Further, he praised Officer Kenneth Catterton and Officer Kemper Agee for their support and hard work. Mr. Howard commended Assistant United States Attorney Douglas Klein, who conducted the grand jury investigation of this matter and who was instrumental in breaking the case, paralegal specialist Jennifer Iuzzolino whose hard work and attention to detail were outstanding, and Assistant United States Attorneys Lynn C. Mattucci and John Han who prosecuted the case.

Cortez Gatlin sentenced by the Honorable Ann O'Regan Keary to a period of incarceration of twenty years to life for fatally stabbing Kevin Buckman on July 28, 1998, near the intersection of 4th and H Streets, N.E. (F-5532-98, PSA 105)

FACTS: Cortez Gatlin, also known as Coriez J. Gatlin, 26, of the 2200 block of 5th Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., was sentenced by the Honorable Ann O'Regan Keary to a period of incarceration of twenty years to life for fatally stabbing Kevin Buckman near the intersection of 4th and H Streets, N.E. On June 13, 2003, Gatlin was found guilty of Second Degree Murder While Armed and Assault with a Deadly Weapon, in the murder of Kevin Buckman on July 28, 1998.

According to the Government's evidence at trial, during the late summer of 1998, defendant Gatlin assaulted the victim with a baseball bat over a dispute involving stolen drugs and guns. After the beating, on July 28, 1998, around midnight, defendant Gatlin approached the victim on the street, near the intersection of 4th and H Streets, N.E., and stabbed the victim in the chest. The victim ran a short distance before collapsing on the street, where he died.

In an earlier trial, the jury had convicted Gatlin of Conspiracy to Distribute Cocaine, and Possession with Intent to Distribute Cocaine, but had hung on the First Degree Murder while Armed count. In the re-trial, the jury convicted Gatlin of Second Degree Murder while Armed and Assault with a Deadly Weapon (bat), pertaining to the death.

In announcing the sentence, United States Attorney Roscoe Howard praised the work of Metropolitan Police Detectives Jacqueline Middleton and Monica Shields, and Officers Jeffrey Clay, Connie Hickman and David Murray, for their investigation of the case. Mr. Howard also praised the work of United States Attorney's Office paralegals Rachel Mamula and Olivia Ryan, Victim/Witness Advocate Yvonne Bryant, and Amy Klein of the Litigation Support Section. Finally, Mr. Howard commended Assistant United States Attorneys Gary Wheeler, who tried the case, and Edward Burley, co-counsel in the case, until he was called for military duty in Iraq.

Christopher Wade pleads guilty to Armed Robbery at 8th and F Streets N.E., and Armed Robbery of a Senior Citizen, at Hechinger Mall. (F-1841-03, PSAs 106 and 510)

FACTS: Christopher Wade, 20, of 700 block of 24th Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., plead guilty to one count of armed robbery and one count of armed robbery of a senior citizen, before the Honorable Judge Judith Retchin. The defendant faces up to 75 years in prison at sentencing on December 19, 2003.

According to information provided by the government in court proceedings, on January 21, 2003, at approximately 3:30 p.m., the defendant, wielding a box cutter, approached a 78-year-old senior citizen while she was retrieving her dry-cleaning at a shop in the Hechinger Mall at 1849 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C. He grabbed twenty dollars held by the victim, then raised the box cutter to her chest and demanded the rest of her money. When she was slow to comply, the defendant put the box cutter to her throat and again demanded cash. She then provided all her money to the defendant, who then fled.

On the evening of February 3, 2003, the defendant approached another female victim in the 800 block of F Street, N.E. (PSA 106), Washington, D.C. As the victim carried groceries from her car, the defendant displayed a box cutter and demanded that she walk up toward the door of a house nearby. There he demanded that she give him all her cash. After she complied, the defendant walked off down the street.

Additional robberies occurred in the same area on the evenings of February 5 and February 11, 2003. During these robberies, the assailant displayed a small object which appeared to be a pistol prior to demanding money from his victims.

On February 12, 2003, MPD Officer Joseph Cullen observed the defendant matching the clothing and physical description given by the victim of the February 11, 2003, robbery. Upon stopping him, Officer Cullen recovered a chrome cigarette lighter which closely resembled a pistol.

In announcing the results of this prosecution, United States Attorney Roscoe Howard commended the outstanding work of Detectives Thomas Austin-Braxton and Ken Goldberg, and the sharp eyes of Officer Joseph Cullen, as well as the excellent work of Officers Steve Pappas, Anthony Delucca, Ernest Grover, Oris Dearborn, William Covington and John Oakes, and Detective Karen Zibrat, all of the Metropolitan Police Department. Mr. Howard also commended Assistant United States Attorneys Thomas Gillice, who indicted the case and handled the plea proceeding, and Susan Osborne, who initiated and assisted in the investigation of this case.

Donovan Black and Keith Smith, plead guilty in D.C. Superior Court to charge of Armed Robbery. (F-5284-03, F-5283-03; PSA 105)

FACTS: Donovan Black and Keith Smith pled guilty to Armed Robbery in connection with a Capitol Hill armed robbery. The defendants admitted that they got into a cab on August 30, 2003, at the intersection of New Jersey and Pennsylvania Avenues, N.W., and robbed the cab driver at gunpoint, taking $120 in cash and a cell phone. After the two men fled the cab, the cabbie found police less than one block away. Two officers, Officers William Wright, Badge 3699, and Officer Darryl Isom, Badge 3884, members of MPD's Emergency Response Team (SWAT team), had been redeployed for the evening and were on routine patrol when they were stopped by the cab driver. The officers responded quickly, locating the two robbers only two blocks from where the men fled the cab. After a short chase, the two robbers were caught, and the cabbie's property recovered. Police also found a silver .25 caliber pistol that one of the men tried to throw away as he ran. Back at the First District police station, First District Det. Elliott Washington obtained videotaped confessions by both men. On the strength of this quick police work, both defendants elected to take an early plea and accept responsibility.

Sentencing is scheduled before the Honorable Susan Winfield on January 7, 2004. This case was handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney David P. Saybolt.

Robert Bellamy, commercial safe-cracker and burglar, pleads guilty to Attempted Second Degree Burglary and three felony counts of Receiving Stolen Property. (Case F-173-03; PSAs 101, 104, 208, 209)

FACTS: On January 8, 2003, at approximately 7:00 a.m., an employee of the Lindy's Red Lion restaurant at 2040 I Street, NW (PSA 208) surprised a burglar standing inside the closed restaurant, holding a large plastic bag. The suspect fled. The employee realized that a variety of liquors had been stolen, along with two rectangular safes attached to each other by plywood. The employee called the police, and gave a description (a dark skinned black male, approximately 6 feet tall, 200 pounds wearing a big black fluffy coat, black shoes and black pants). At approximately 8:30 a.m. that same day, Second District Detective Sergeant Ron Wyatt and Detective John Paprcka, following a hunch related to separate information received a few days earlier, drove to 1601 North Carolina Avenue, NE, in 5D. They heard power tools being operated from within the building coming from Apartment 2. This apartment had a broken window. The detectives conversed with a person later identified as the defendant, Robert Bellamy through the window, and subsequently were let into the apartment. Once inside, they observed a large bag containing several bottles of liquor, an empty cash register drawer, two rectangular steel boxes that appeared to be safes with a sheet of plywood between them, and an electric circular power saw. They also observed several other opened safes outside, by the trash can. A search warrant was obtained, and several safes, power tools, bottles of liquor and other items were recovered.

In pleading guilty, defendant Bellamy admitted taking part in the Red Lion burglary, as well as to using power tools to cut open safes taken in other burglaries. Specifically, his admissions related to a burglary at the Lindy's Red Lion restaurant on January 8, 2003 located at 2040 I Street, NW (PSA 208) (the two rectangular safes attached by a piece of plywood, that were recovered in his apartment, had been taken in that burglary); and property taken in a burglary at the Popeyes Restaurant on December 22, 2003 located at 1101 F Street, NW (PSA 104) (six safes taken in that burglary were recovered from his apartment); in a burglary at the Mad Hatter restaurant, located at 1831 M Street, NW (PSA 209) (he received property valued at over $250 including various food items); and in a burglary at the Washington Café restaurant, located at 1025 Vermont Avenue, NW (PSA 101) (he received property valued at over $250 including liquor and money).

This case was broken open through the outstanding aggressive and intuitive police work of Second District Detective Sergeant Ron Wyatt (currently detailed to 6D) and Detective John Paprcka, in connecting and aggressively pursuing unrelated information received on a different day, to locate and identify defendant Bellamy and his North Carolina Avenue apartment, uncover his operation, obtain a search warrant, and recover incriminating evidence including stolen safes and the tools to cut them open. In addition, First District Detective Joseph Radvansky developed a witness in connection with another burglary, and a thorough followup investigation was also conducted, by Detectives Paprecka and Radvansky, involving the submission of fingerprint requests in numerous commercial burglaries, ultimately producing no matches.

Defendant Bellamy faces up to 26 years imprisonment when sentenced by the Honorable Russell Canan on November 19, 2003. The thorough investigation and successful plea in this case were handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Wanda Dixon.

Justin Howard sentenced in federal court to 84 months in prison for the interstate transportation of a minor with the intent to engage in criminal sexual activity. (PSA 101)

FACTS: Justin Howard, 20, of Toledo, Ohio, was sentenced by the Honorable Emmet G. Sullivan of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to a total of 84 months of incarceration for the interstate transportation of a minor with the intent to engage in criminal sexual activity. The defendant pled guilty to this offense in November 2002.

According to the government's factual proffer provided at the defendant's plea proceeding, the crime was uncovered on July 23, 2002, at approximately 5:30 a.m., when an officer of the Metropolitan Police Department patrolling in the 1400 block of L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., observed three young women walking in the street wearing just high heels and lingerie. The officer stopped the women, believing that they were minors and involved in prostitution activities. After further investigation, it was discovered that the young females were 15, 16, and 22 years of age. They had just been driven to Washington, D.C., from Toledo, Ohio, by Justin Howard for the express purpose of engaging in prostitution activities in which the defendant would act as their "pimp."

The young females met the defendant in Ohio and had known him for only a short time before he took them to Washington, D.C. The defendant instructed the young females about the "rules" for the trip, which included that he was going to put them on the streets of Washington, D.C., that they would make money by engaging in prostitution activities and that they would give the defendant all the money they earned. In return, the defendant would "take care" of them.

The day before arriving in Washington, D.C., the defendant took the young females to a shopping mall in Toledo, Ohio, where he purchased shoes and outfits for the women to wear to engage in prostitution activities. The outfits consisted of lingerie he purchased from Victoria's Secret and high heel shoes.

Approximately one hour outside of Washington, D.C., the defendant took the women to a gas station and told them to go to the bathroom and change into their lingerie outfits. The women changed into the clothes that the defendant had purchased for them and the defendant then continued to drive the females across state lines to Washington, D.C. They arrived in Washington, D.C., in the early morning hours of July 23, 2002.

The defendant drove the females to the 1400 block of L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., and dropped them off, telling them that he would return later to pick them up. This area is in the middle of the “track” or “stroll,” which is the traditional “red light” district in downtown, Washington, D.C., where many prostitutes congregate to solicit money in exchange for sex from clients. The defendant also told the females to put their everyday clothes in the trunk of his car. The three women then began walking in the street, and shortly thereafter, were stopped by the police.

The three women gave the police a description of the defendant and the car he was driving. Soon thereafter, Howard was stopped by the police in the 1100 block of Vermont Ave., N.W., a short distance from where the females had been stopped. The young females were brought to the scene and identified the defendant as the person who had brought them to Washington, D.C. from Toledo, Ohio, to engage in prostitution activities. Found in the trunk of the defendant’s vehicle were the young females’ everyday clothes, Victoria Secret tags, new shoe boxes and store receipts for shoes.

In announcing the sentence, U.S. Attorney Roscoe Howard praised the effective police work of Metropolitan Police Department Officers Joe Thomas, Stephen Bias, Baba Dass, Randy Shed and Chad Hambrick. In addition, U.S. Attorney Howard cited the efforts of Assistant United States Attorneys George P. Eliopoulos, who successfully prosecuted the case, and Benjamin Friedman, who assisted in the prosecution.

Roderick Jackson, of Syracuse, New York sentenced by U.S. District Judge Rosemary Collyer, to six years in prison for inducing two minors to engage in prostitution. (PSA 101)

FACTS: Roderick Jackson, 37, of Syracuse, New York, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Rosemary Collyer to a total of six years in prison for transporting four females, including two minors, from Syracuse, New York, into the District of Columbia to engage in prostitution earlier this year. Jackson plead guilty in July 2003 to two counts of pandering for his role in the offense.

According to the government’s evidence, in the early morning hours of May 15, 2003, the defendant dropped off four women in the area of the 1000 block of K Street, N.W., to work as prostitutes. Additionally, the defendant admitted in earlier court proceedings to taking the women’s proceeds and providing crack cocaine as necessary.

In announcing the sentence, United States Attorney Roscoe Howard extolled the outstanding work of Metropolitan Police Department Officer Derrick Lee and Detectives Mark Gilkey and Antonio Duncan, as well as Federal Bureau of Investigation Special Agents Michael Maclean and Alexander Horan. Mr. Howard also commended Assistant United States Attorney Toni Florence, who prosecuted the matter.

Anthony Jackson pleads guilty to Aggravated Assault and Attempted Escape before the Honorable Susan R. Winfield. (F-1988-03, PSA 106)

FACTS: On April 2, 2003, at approximately 9:45 pm, the victim had just ended her shift as an employee of a cleaning company that cleaned the REA building located at 900 2nd Street, NE. (in which Amtrak has office space). The victim was in the basement of the building, locking up her cleaning supplies, when the defendant, Anthony Jackson, walked up behind her and backed her into a corner. The defendant said “you are coming home with me tonight”. The victim was very afraid because there were no other people in the basement and she did not know what the defendant was going to do. The defendant then grabbed her by the hair and pulled her onto the elevator.

When the doors closed on the elevator the defendant began punching the victim about the head and face. Defendant grabbed hold of her hair and banged her head against the wall of the elevator. Clumps of the victim’s hair fell out, from the defendant pulling her hair. Blood started pouring from her nose and face. When the elevator doors opened the victim tried to escape but the defendant still had hold of her arm. The elevator door opened and closed on her arm. The victim finally broke free and ran, screaming, down the hallway to the office where two Amtrak employees were working. The employees were able to step between the victim and the defendant.

Other Amtrak employees were also able to observe the struggle between the victim and the defendant, through a long glass window facing out to Amtrak’s train yard, and they ran over to assist. Eventually, Amtrak and MPD officers arrived on the scene. Amtrak Police Officer Millsaps was able to handcuff the defendant with the assistance of the civilian Amtrak employees.

The victim was taken to Howard University hospital. Her injuries included a fractured nose, patches of missing hair, bruises on her face and arm, a ringing sensation in her left ear, and continuing headaches.

With regard to the attempted escape charge, the defendant was taken to George Washington Hospital, under arrest and in police custody, with a 24 hour watch on his room, and the defendant handcuffed to his bed. The day after the assault, however, on April 4, 2003, the defendant convinced the officer guarding him that he could not use the bed pan, so the officer unlocked the defendant’s handcuffs to allow him to use the bathroom inside his hospital room. When the defendant came out of the bathroom, he bolted out of the room and down the hallway. Fortunately, the defendant was apprehended by police and hospital security before he could leave the floor .

Defendant faces up to 11 years imprisonment, when sentenced by the Honorable Susan Winfield on November 24, 2003.

Tyrell King of 6100 Rosedale Drive, Hyattsville, MD, and 517 Irving Street, NW, Washington, DC, pleads guilty to Assault With Intent to Rob, and Carrying a Pistol Without a License. (F-4838-03; PSA 102)

FACTS: The government's evidence showed that on August 11, 2003, at approximately 5:10 o'clock a.m., at the intersection of 3rd and I Streets, N.W., Washington, DC, the victim approached defendant Tyrell L. King and asked for change for a $10 bill. Defendant King put the $10 bill in his pocket, and when the victim asked for his change, defendant King informed the victim that he wasn't going to get any change. When the victim asked again, defendant King lifted up his shirt, displayed a silver hand gun with a long black clip (an extended magazine), and repeated "you're not going to get anything." The victim fled, without his change, and without his $10 bill.

Approximately five minutes later, the first victim, and a friend, were at the corner of 5th and K Streets, N.W. – three blocks from the first incident – when the defendant and another person approached them and demanded, "who has the money." When defendant King pulled a gun from his pocket, the victim, his friend, and the other people at the corner ran from the defendant. Defendant and his friend rode away on bicycles. The victim and his friend reached a building security guard, and asked the guard to call the police.

Within minutes of receiving a radio run assignment for a man with a gun, officers of the Metropolitan Police Department arrived and spoke with the victims, and broadcast a lookout for the robbers. Meanwhile, off-duty detective Chris Coles observed defendant King throw a gun at the back of a parked car near the corner of 5th and I Streets, NW. Another officer was immediately directed to the location where defendant King had thrown this gun, and found a .45 caliber silver semi-automatic colt pistol with a black extended magazine. The gun was loaded with one round in the chamber and five in the magazine.

As a result of officers canvassing the neighborhood, defendant King (and the other person who had been with him the second time King displayed the gun) were stopped within approximately 20 minutes of the initial robbery. Both the first victim, and his friend, positively identified defendant King as the person who had displayed the gun with intent to rob them. Defendant King was placed under arrest, and, in a search incident to arrest, officers recovered a $10 bill as well as two rounds of .45 caliber ammunition. The .45 caliber pistol was test-fired and found to be operable.

Midnight 1D officers Thomas Jones, Mark Nassar, Jody Shegan, and Chris Crusar, and 1D Crime Scene officer Michael DePrince, contributed to the arrest in this case. Defendant King faces up to 20 years incarceration when sentenced by Judge Russell Canan on December 12, 2003.

Norman Pleasant convicted of Assault with a Dangerous Weapon (Knife) and Simple Assault, for stabbing older man in dispute over auto repairs. Defendant ordered held without bond by Judge Rafael Diaz, following verdict. (F-7124-02, PSA 103)

FACTS: A District of Columbia Superior Court jury found Norman Pleasant, of the 4100 block of Southern Avenue, Capitol Heights, Maryland, guilty of Assault with a Dangerous Weapon and Simple Assault, in connection with a stabbing which occurred at an auto repair lot in the 1000 block of 3rd Street, N.E. on March 23, 2002. The trial was conducted by the Honorable Rafael Diaz, who ordered the defendant taken into custody, and held without bond, following the jury's verdict.

The incident arose in connection with work done at an auto repair garage in the 1000 block of 3rd Street, N.E., owned and operated by the 58 year old victim in the case. The defendant, a 39 year old man, complained about the work, and the two men argued. When the victim attempted to forcibly remove the defendant from the lot, the defendant punched the victim several times in the face. Defendant Pleasant then went to his car, retrieved something, put it under his shirt, returned to the lot, and stabbed the victim in the back.

Although the victim told police what happened at the time of the incident, he refused to come to court or witness conferences at the time of trial until a message was left for him at the garage that the court had issued a bench warrant for him. At that time, he finally came in, met with the prosecutor, and ultimately testified, clearly and credibly, concerning what had happened. Moreover, the jury credited his account, rejecting testimony of a defense witness that the victim was the aggressor.

The defendant faces up to ten and one-half years in prison when sentenced by Judge Diaz on November 12, 2003. This case was prosecuted at trial by Assistant U.S. Attorney Alex Shawe.

Jurome Proctor sentenced to 20 months incarceration, by the Honorable Harold Cushenberry, for driving stolen vehicle on Constitution Avenue, N.W. (F-4296-03; PSA 107)

FACTS: Jurume Proctor of the 6000 block of Dragoo Court, Clinton, Maryland, was sentenced by the Honorable Harold Cushenberry to 20 months incarceration, following his plea of guilty to Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle.

The government's evidence showed that on July 20, 2003, at approximately 12:35 a.m., officer Joel Hobbs of the United States Capitol Police, on patrol in a marked car, observed a red Dodge Stratus traveling west on Constitution Avenue, NW at 3rd Street, Washington, DC. The vehicle made a left turn onto 3rd Street against a red light. Officer Hobbs ran a check of the tag of the car, and learned that it belonged to a Ford truck. The officer stopped the vehicle, which was driven by the defendant, Jurome R. Proctor. Officer Hobbs instructed the defendant to turn the car off. Although it appeared that defendant Proctor placed some keys on the roof of the car, the officer noticed that the car was still running. Officer Hobbs approached and asked Proctor why he didn't turn the car off. Defendant Proctor said he could not turn the car off because it was stolen. When asked how he knew the car was stolen, defendant stated he had used a screwdriver to start the car.

Defendant and a passenger were removed from the car and secured. Officer Hobbs ran a check of the vehicle identification number and learned that the car had been reported stolen on July 3, 2003. Defendant Proctor had a screwdriver in his pocket, and the ignition of the car was punched.

Julius Hickson pleads guilty to Attempted Assault with a Dangerous Weapon, and Carrying a Dangerous Weapon, in connection with stabbing in park three blocks from courthouse. (F-4004-03, PSA 105)

FACTS: Defendant Julius Hickson pled guilty to Attempted Assault with a Dangerous Weapon, and Carrying a Dangerous Weapon (Outside the Home), in connection with a stabbing on June 30, 2003, at approximately 9:35 p.m., in the 400 block of Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. The incident occurred in the John Marshall Park, three blocks from the Superior Court.

Defendant Hickson stabbed the victim in his right leg. The victim lost a large amount of blood, as the knife barely missed the femoral artery. The victim and witnesses, all homeless men, identified the defendant to investigating U.S. Park Police officers and detectives. When arrested on a warrant, defendant admitted to stabbing the victim, but contended he acted in self defense. The case proved challenging, as it was difficult to locate the victim and the witnesses, but the Park Police ultimately were successful.

Defendant Hickson faces 10 years imprisonment, when sentenced on December 12, 2003, by the Honorable Russell Canan.

Wilfredo E. Uribe sentenced to time served (five months), with additional jail time suspended, after plea to Attempted Aggravated Assault in connection with vehicular incident in which he ran over his friend outside nightclub on 17th Street NW. (Case No. F-2874-03, PSAs 101, 209)

FACTS: Wilfredo E. Uribe, age 20, of 4000 block of Bluebird Drive, Waldorf, MD was sentenced on October 17, 2003, by the Honorable Russell Canan, to three years incarceration, for attempted aggravated assault. The execution of sentence was suspended as to all but time served (approximately five months), and defendant Uribe was placed on two years of supervised probation. As part of his probation, Uribe will be required to participate in substance abuse treatment, obtain education or vocational training, perform one hundred hours of community service and pay the Crime Victims Fund a sum of $500.00. This sentence was under the Youth Act.

According to the facts presented at the plea hearing, on May 18, 2003 at 4:00 a.m., Officer Porter of the Metropolitan Police Department was on routine patrol when he was approached by a taxi cab driver who stated that there was a big fight in the 1000 block of Connecticut Avenue. When Officer Porter arrived on the scene he found the complaining witness lying in the street, bleeding and not fully conscious. Witnesses on the scene reported that a large fight had broken out in the middle of the street. Witnesses indicated that a large number of people, including the defendant, later identified as Wilfredo Ezequiel Uribe, were involved in the fight. Witnesses stated that the defendant was struck in the head with a bottle during the fight. He then got into a vehicle and intentionally drove his vehicle forward, intending to strike individuals he thought had attacked his friend, but instead striking his friend. Other witnesses stated that they had to move quickly out of the way in order to avoid being struck by Uribe's oncoming vehicle.

Witnesses observed that the complaining witness was trapped in front of the wheel of the vehicle as it continued to move forward about twenty feet and the tires of the vehicle were spinning on his body. Witnesses stated that they banged on the window to get the defendant to stop. The vehicle eventually stopped and the defendant put the vehicle in reverse and drove away around the corner.

The defendant's vehicle was found in the 1700 block of K Street NW by police. Witnesses on the scene made a positive identification of the defendant as the person driving the vehicle that ran over the man. The vehicle sustained some damage, including damage to the front passenger side bumper. An alcohol unit on the Metropolitan Police Department was called to the scene. The officer noticed a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from the defendant's breath. The defendant failed to successfully complete the field sobriety tests.

The complaining witness was taken to the hospital where he stayed for four days with injuries to his body. He was later released. The case was unusual because the complaining witness and the defendant were friends.

This result could not have been achieved without the efforts of Detective James Freeman and Officers Frank Porter, Howard Smith, and James Burgess of the Metropolitan Police Department; Paralegal Jennifer Iuzzolino; and Assistant United States Attorney Diane Lucas, who prosecuted the case.

Joseph Kirk Davis, 51, of Manassas, Virginia, a manager of Cardinal Concrete Company, sentenced by U.S. District Judge Paul Friedman for falsifying discharge monitoring reports concerning discharge of wastewater into Anacostia River from concrete plant located at 25 Potomac Avenue, S.E. (PSA 111)

FACTS: The Honorable Paul Friedman of the United States District Court sentenced Joseph Kirk Davis, 51, of Manassas, Virginia, to six months home confinement, a $2000 fine, and 100 hours of community service, following his plea of guilty, on November 29, 2001, to falsifying discharge monitoring reports at Cardinal Concrete's D.C. and Spotsylvania concrete production plants in the fall of 2000.

According to information provided to the Court by the government, Cardinal Concrete Company manufactures and distributes concrete from many area plants, including its facility located at 25 Potomac Avenue, S.E., in Washington, D.C. Its concrete production yields industrial wastewater, released into the Anacostia River, primarily generated by the washing out of residual concrete from the rotating drums of concrete trucks. The industrial wastewater contains suspended solids and has an elevated pH level that makes it corrosive, all constituting pollutants regulated by the Clean Water Act. Accordingly, Cardinal Concrete was subject to federal regulations and a permit that required that it demonstrate that its emissions were within permitted limits. Davis admitted to falsifying the required monthly discharge monitoring reports in two ways: he sometimes included false information in the reports, and other times he represented that testing was performed when, in fact, he had substituted samples from other plants. EPA investigators, FBI agents and officers of the Metropolitan Police Department's Environmental Crimes Section discovered the false reports when they conducted tests of their own on the water discharge from the D.C. plant. When they confronted Davis with their results, he admitted making false reports.

In announcing the sentence, U.S. Attorney Roscoe Howard and A.A.G. Sansonetti praised the efforts of EPA Attorney Mike Fisher and Special Agent Brandon Solari, FBI Special Agent Marvin Strickland, and MPD Investigator Carl Ruleman. They also commended Assistant U.S. Attorneys Oliver McDaniel and Barbara E. Kittay, and ENRD Trial Attorney Epin Christensen, who prosecuted the case.

Reginald Hooks of the 4500 block of Quarles Street, NW, pleads guilty, pre-indictment, to Attempted Carrying a Pistol without a License. (F-4855-03; PSA107)

FACTS: The government's evidence showed that on August 12, 2003, at approximately 12:15 a.m., United States Park Police officers Patricia DeMarco and Al Keene stopped a car in which the defendant, Reginald Hooks, was a passenger, on Haines Point Island. The officers obtained consent of the driver to search the car. They asked Hooks to step out of the car, and asked him if he had any sharp objects or weapons that would hurt the officers, or any drugs, on him. Defendant Hooks replied that he had some weed (marijuana) in his front pocket. The officers placed handcuffs on Hooks, and asked him which pocket and whether there was anything else. As a pat down was initiated, defendant Hooks stated that he had a BB gun in that pocket. Officer Keene recovered a black .22 caliber handgun. Subsequently, the gun was test-fired and found to be operable, and defendant Hooks was found not to have a license to carry a firearm.

Defendant Hooks is scheduled to be sentenced by the Honorable Harold Cushenberry on November 19, 2003.
